

6 WAYS CORONAVIRUS WILL CHANGE THE WORLD OF WORK

1.
Remote work will become a widely accepted alternative to location-based work.

3.
Virtual learning will expand dramatically so that employees can develop their skills in less time.

5.
Telemedicine usage will spread as companies and employees recognize the value of distance care.

2.
Finding talent will become easier as new hires will be available globally via remote work.

4.
Virtual reality will advance so that employees can work more collaboratively through common viewing.

6.
Employers will become more fiscally conservative than they were in the 2010s.
